

A BURGLAR DETECTED

The Man who Robbed the Store of Norfleet & Bro., in Suffolk. Arrested.

JOURNALIST WINDER REACHES SUFFOLK.

The Steel Book Cases for the Clerk's Office Arrive—The Blackwater River Going Dry—A Sunday Wedding—Other Notes of Personal, Religious and Political Mention.

Suffolk, Va., Oct. 28.—(Special)—George Rawles, the burglar who robbed the hardware store of Norfleet & Bro. on the night of October 23, has been detected, and as a result of a preliminary hearing in Mayor Brewer's Court today he now lies in jail to await the grand jury's investigation. The detection was an accident. On Saturday night a boy to whom Rawles had sold a stolen pistol came to the store for cartridges and Mr. Norfleet at once recognized the weapon as a part of the goods removed from his store on the night of the burglary. The boy who had the firearm told from whom he bought it and Rawles' arrest followed. On the witness stand the statements of the accused were very contradictory. The articles stolen were taken from a window whose glass was broken with a rock.

Wasp, and correspondent of the Buffalo Illustrated Express, who is making a circuit of the United States, a distance of something over 2,000 miles, on a wheel, serenely glided into Suffolk Sunday morning and registered at the Commercial Hotel. After resting till this morning at 7:30 o'clock he turned his face Southward and soon put Suffolk far behind him. He left here for Veldon, N. C., from which place he will proceed to Wilmington. He expects to finish the circuit before his time limit of 300 days shall have expired, and having complied with the conditions of the bet, will win a handsome wager.

CLERK'S OFFICE EQUIPMENTS ARRIVE.—A car load of steel book cases, document files and other interior equipments for the new County Clerk's office arrived to-day, accompanied by the contractor, E. P. Smith, of Richmond. The contractor, who is engaged to work a force to place in position the articles and said this afternoon that the office would be ready for occupancy by Tuesday of next week. The equipments to all appearances are of excellent workmanship and of great value, and, notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Smith's bid was nearly $1,000 below that of his competitors, his fulfillment of the contract will result satisfactorily, and the work will be an ornament to the office and a credit to the county.

RIVER DRYING UP.—An experienced woodsman and hunter, who has been in Southampton county for several days, states that the Blackwater river, which at times is a very formidable stream, is now so diminished in size as to be easily forded in places without wading ones feet. It is said to be lower by several feet than ever seen by the oldest natives.

RETURNED FROM ATLANTA.—The remaining members of the Phoenix Fire Company's excursion returned to-day from Atlanta via Norfolk and Carolina. The second division will start about a week from now, the exact date not having yet been chosen.

C., arrived in Suffolk at 10:40 o'clock Sunday night and are now at home in the boarding house of Mrs. W. E. Applewhite, Chestnut street.

And Other Important News Notes from Prosperous Newport News.

Newport News, Va., Oct. 28.—(Special)—Father Donahue, pastor of the Catholic Church here, will give a dinner to-day at 1 o'clock, at his handsome new residence on Richmond avenue, to twelve of his brother priests.

Though quite an informal affair, it will doubtless be a very enjoyable one. The event will be in the order of a "house warming" to celebrate the opening of Father Donahue's residence which has recently been erected by his people. Among those who will enjoy his hospitality on this occasion will be Rev. John McVerry, of Staunton, under whom Father Donahue was sent on his first mission as assistant; Rev. J. Brady, of Portsmouth; Rev. John Donerty, of Norfolk; Rev. T. J. Wilson, of Norfolk; Rev. W. A. McKee, of Norfolk; Rev. Jos. Frioli, Porters; Rev. T. J. Mercer, Porters; Rev. Thomas Donahue, Richmond; Rev. John R. O'Reilly, Richmond; Rev. Willibald Baumgartner, Richmond; Rev. M. J. Ahern, Richmond; Rev. H. J. McKeefry, Richmond.

The quick response of his fellow priests to be present on this occasion is an evidence of the high esteem in which Father Donahue is held by them.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Bates left today by steamer Janestown, for New York, after a month's sojourn at the Warwick.

The steamship Westgate entered this port yesterday, coalled and cleared for Havre, France.

Governor O'Ferrall will preside and three or four gentlemen will make short addresses. It is proposed to start a subscription for the meeting, and persons of all professions, and religious, and some of the most successful business men of the town. It is hoped to start similar movements elsewhere in Virginia.

Among those who will aid in the movement to rebuild the structure destroyed and restore the library are W. R. McDuff, Joseph Bryan, Dr. Hunter McGuire, Captain W. Gordon McCabe, Hon. J. Taylor Elyson, Levin Jones, Dr. George Ross, Dr. C. W. P. Brock, Rev. Dr. W. W. Landrum, Senator William Lovestein, A. L. Bonner, Colonel John B. Purcell, and many others, who are the Chairmanship of the Republican State Committee will be offered to Colonel William Lamb, and he is urged to accept it. Some of his friends here think he is too much of a party man to decline. General Waffler is said to be slated for membership of the National Committee. I hear that Colonel Lamb will not be objected to by the Yosts, of Staunton.

Miss Lelia Stiles, daughter of Major Robert Stiles, a beautiful young woman of pronounced literary attainments, died yesterday from typhoid fever.

It will cure your grip and do you good generally.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ross, who reside on Lee street and have the funeral home, had the misfortune to lose by death their infant child, Clarence, Saturday night, the death being a very unusual one. About 11:30 o'clock Mrs. Ross awoke and found a cat sitting in a chair beside the bed with its head very close to the child's face. The animal was driven away, and when the mother took up her child the little one's body was lifeless, having evidently been suffocated by the cat.

Rev. R. N. Quisenberry, of the Berkeley-Avenue Baptist Church, had that edifice packed Sunday night by a congregation anxious to hear what he had to say about "The New Woman," which was the subject of his discourse.

He preached a most "woman" in the church, in business, in politics, and on the bicycle. He pictured the latter as attired in a stiff hat, four-in-hand tie, necktie shirt, cutaway coat and bloomers, of whom he said to the ladies present, "don't do it!"

Mr. Quisenberry has been a most successful pastor of the church, and he is now resigning, but he has recently resigned. through the wrong end of the glass, if you will; make all its labor-saving, money-saving qualities appear as small as you like; cut them down one-half; and still there will be left a place for it in every home and an urgent call for it from every bright, progressive woman.

To sell Pearline, it isn't necessary to exaggerate its virtues. Perhaps that couldn't easily be done. But even without telling of them all, there's enough to prove it the easiest, quickest, safest and most economical thing you can use, in all washing and cleaning.
